ITALIAN RACE CAR REACHES TONOPAH

REMAINED BUT A FEW MINUTES AND THEN LEFT FOR GOLDFIELD

The Italian car, in the New York to Paris race, the Zusta, with Pilot James Pearce of Evanston, Wyo., Emile Sistori, Henri Haaga and Antonio Scarfoglio arrived in Tonopah yesterday afternoon and left at 2:37 for Goldfield. The machine came in unheralded and stopped in front of the Butler hall, where a fair-sized crowd congregated in a few minutes. The men had the appearance of having had a hard trip.

Upon the receipt of a telegram they proceeded on their way to Goldfield, where they remained last night.

The machine is a 23-40 horsepower car and carries gasoline in three tanks.

It will follow the route taken by the American car to San Francisco. Several rifles were in evidence in the car.

The end of the week finds the American car on a steamer bound for Seattle; the Italian at Goldfield; the French near Coble, Nev., and the German on a freight train bound for Ogden for repairs.

NEVADA CLUB HAS FINE MAPS

Grant Crumley of the Nevada club, ever alert to the interests of the community, has purchased a fine map cabinet, in which he has enlarged copies of all of the official maps of the mining districts of Nevada. It is an affair that will interest all people as it contains maps of Tonopah, Goldfield, Rawhide, Manhattan, Round mountain, Fairview, Wonder, Ely, Bullfrog, Greenwater and the Comstock lode.

ODD FELLOWS TO GIVE DANCE

A grand anniversary ball is to be given on April 27 by the Belmont lodge of Odd Fellows. The Odd Fellows' dances have in the past always been one of the most important events in dancing circles, and with the arrangement committee already at work it can be assured that this dance will be one of the most successful of the year.

FIRE DESTROYS TWO HOUSES

Good Work of the Department Saves Three Dwellings In Immediate Vicinity.

Heroic work by Chief MacKenzie and members of the fire department last night prevented what might have been a general conflagration. The fire started in the residence occupied by Will Perrini and family, and before the flames were discovered nearly the entire house was burning. It quickly spread to the residence adjoining, owned and occupied by Mrs. Laura Egan, Mrs. Ida O'Brien and Miss Agnes Fuller. Both houses were completely destroyed. The fire department made a record-breaking run, arriving on the scene in less than four minutes after the alarm sounded. It was owing to its efficient work that four houses adjacent to the ones burning were saved. The men worked like beavers and saved nearly everything from the Egan house, but very little was rescued from the Perrini home, as the flames spread too rapidly. The origin of the fire is unknown. Commendation was heard on all sides for the great work done by Chief Jack MacKenzie and his lieutenants. It was impossible last night to find out the amount of insurance, if any, carried on the buildings and their contents.

BOLD ATTEMPT AT BURGLARY

RICHARD HARDWARE STORE IS INVADED BY BURGLAR WHO SHOOTS AT CLERK

An attempt was made to rob the Richard hardware store early Friday night and but for the accidental interference of Charles Coble, the thieves would have made away with considerable booty. Mr. Coble is employed as a clerk in the store, and about 9:30 that evening he entered the store to take the cash from the cash register and place it in the safe. As he unlocked the door, he casually noticed a man, evidently a confederate, in front of the window in the act of lighting a cigarette or pipe. Upon entering the store he started for the register, but before he had proceeded many steps the form of a man rose from behind the counter, who after leveling a revolver at him fired. Coble didn't hesitate a second but immediately ran from the place into the Oro Y Plato saloon and informed the crowd there of what had happened. A search was made of the premises, but the burglar had fled leaving a sack containing some guns and several razors.

ROBERTSON WILL MAKE CONFESSION

SAN FRANCISCO, March 28.—Word reached the office of the chief of police last night that John Dalzell Robertson, assistant secretary of the defunct California Safe Deposit and Trust company, was in New York and anxious to return to San Francisco and turn state's evidence. Robertson was indicted with J. Dalzell Brown, Walter J. Barnett and James Treadwell for embezzlement. He escaped from San Francisco as soon as the crash came and has been a fugitive for four months. Robertson is penniless and broken in health. Through friends he has made what practically amounts to a complete confession and hopes that he may be granted immunity for the testimony he is willing to give.

The statements made by Robertson directly involve Barnett, Brown and Treadwell.

The story told by Robertson in New York is one of a long fight to re-establish himself in the world with failure and poverty at the end of the struggle. Robertson told his friends that he had been dodging from place to place in the eastern states for the past four months, that he had tried in vain to secure work, and that finally the futility of further resistance to fate had impressed itself upon him. He was ready, he said, to return to San Francisco and eager to again greet his wife and look after his home.

CHINESE BOYCOTT THE JAPANESE

(By Associated Press.)

SEATTLE, Wash., March 28.—Chinese merchants in Hongkong are boycotting Japanese steamers between China and Seattle. The first intimation of this was contained in a cablegram today to the Hammond Milling company directing that concern to make no shipments by the Japanese line.

STOLE EAGLES' FUNDS

BUTTE, Mont., March 28.—Phil Miller, secretary and treasurer of the local aerie of Eagles, and well-known in the circles of that organization throughout the northwest, was placed under arrest yesterday afternoon, charged with the embezzlement of $206 of the funds of the local aerie.

TETRAZZINI SUE

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, March 28.—An attachment was granted today on the property of Madame Tetrazzini on behalf of Isadore Lerner, the impresario, who charges the singer with breach of contract and asks $35,000 damages. The singer denied she broke the contract made in the City of Mexico in 1904.

RUN AND BLESSING COMBINED

(By Associated Press.)

REDDING, Cal., March 28.—Frosts have ruined the almond crop around Redding, but has proved a blessing in the Anderson fruit belt, only enough buds being killed to leave the trees all they can bear.

SENATOR OWENS OF OKLAHOMA

Speaking on the question of the guaranty by the Government of National Bank deposits says: "The National Banks for the last nine years have lost their depositors relatively only about $1.00 where the State Banks have lost their depositors $23.00. The average loss of the State Banks has been about $4,000,000 per annum, and the average loss of the National Banks has been about $85,000 per year for the last nine years.

PETITION ASKING FOR HIS REMOVAL

JUSTICE OF THE PEACE ARMSTRONG AT RAWHIDE DECLARED INCOMPETENT

The Esmeralda county commissioners will be presented, it is said, with a petition signed by the leading citizens of Rawhide at their next regular meeting to revoke the appointment of Justice of the Peace Armstrong. It is alleged that he is incompetent owing to his love for the flowing bowl. That the position is correct no good law-abiding citizen of Rawhide will deny. His honor, with a small "h," is the laughing stock of Rawhide. It is the duty of the county commissioners of Esmeralda county to depose Armstrong and appoint a good worthy person to that responsible position.

WOMAN BEATER GIVEN THRASHING

SPECTATORS FAILED TO INTERFERE ON BEHALF OF CHETTEL

Gary Chettel, who on Friday was fined $50 and costs for beating Ada Leonard, who has charge of the Mizpah hotel, yesterday made several ungentlemanly remarks to George Beckley, the expressman, and what George didn't do to him was a caution. The fracas attracted quite a crowd, and when the spectators learned that Chettel was one of the contestants, they all expressed themselves that the woman beater was getting his deserts. No arrests were made.
